Market Update

While 2007 was a good year for new business, we realized that we had an opportunity to write a lot more business than we did. Towards the end of the year we met with most of our markets to discuss pricing levels. I am happy to announce that our 2 major markets have promised to be even more competitive in 2008.

As a company, we also pledge to do all we can to help you write new church or synagogue business. Everyone from our president on down is committed to providing you a quick turnaround and the best pricing available. We all know marketplace is extremely competitive, but we hope you will give us a chance to earn your business.

If you ever have an account you'd like to run by us, please don't hesitate to call or email our new business underwriter Erik Walseth at:
